Notice

For forty-five years we have been conducting business at the same old location, corner of Main and John Streets, Bridgeport, Conn., and our Private Bank has been established there continuously. We have received and paid out on demand without notice millions of dollars of money deposited with us and we continue to receive money subject to depositor's theck at sight, on which we allow three per cent. per annum, credited to each account monthly. We solicit the accounts of individuals, business men. firms and corporations, and all who want a bank account where they can deposit money, checks or drafts, and leave it for one day, one week, one month or one year, and draw interest on it for any time it is left with us. We give to the business our careful personal attention as the oldest firm of private bankers in this state.

DROWNS AFTER DIVE

Derby Man, Hurt in Leap, Sinks Canal of Power Company

Derby, July 12-Antonio Cantolaro, an Italian, 19 years of age, was drowned in the canal of the Housatonic Water Power Company at 4 o'clock yes-terday afternoon. Cantolaro went to bathe in the canal at a point near the freight house of the Berkshire divisfreight cars, which lap on a siding alongside the canal, and dove in. In diving Cantolaro apparently struck something, for he was seen to flounder in the water by those nearby.
They thought he was shamming.
When they reached him it was seen he was almost lifeless. Efforts to resuscitate him were useless.

JAMES WHITCOMB RILEY'S GIFT. Hoosier Poet Provides Indianapolis With $75,000 Library Site.

Indianapolis, July 12-Dr. James Whitcomb Riley, the Hoosier poet, has made this city a present of a plot of ground at Pennsylvania and St. Clair streets valued at $75,000, to be used as the site of a new public li-brary and school administration building.

Dr. Riley's gift has not been an-nounced formally by the school board, but it is understood that the gift is unconditional and that Mr. Riley has placed deeds for the property in the hands of Henry Eitel, who looks af-ter his business affairs, to be delivered to the school board at such time as may be deemed best.

"CHARLIE ROSS" GOES CRAZY. Man Who Thinks He's the Long Lost Boy Taken to Asylum.

Bangor, Me., July 12-In the Eastern Maine Insane Hospital here is "Charlie Ress," who has just been committed by the town authorities of Milo. The man was working as a dangerous.

The man is apparently a monomaniac on the subject of the long miss-ing Charlie Ross, who he claims to be. He shows a strawberry mark on his chest, a wart under his ear, and a peculiar formation of one of his finger nails, which he claims ought to prove his identity. His pockets were full of notes and clippings about the kidnapping of Charlie Ross, and many written notes about the doings of the Black Hand, which he says spirited him away in 1874.

Philo Crofut

Dies Aged 82

Former Well Known New Haven Business Man, Born in Redding

New Haven, July 12-The death was eported here last night from Great Barrington, Mass., of Philo Sherman Crofut, who for half a century was an important feature in the business ife of New Haven on Chapel street. Mr. Crofut was one of the oldest members of the Knights Templar organization in this city, and his funeral will be conducted by his request under the auspices of that body in this city on Thursday. The interment will be in Evergreen cemetery.

Mr. Crofut was 82 years of age. was born in Redding and in 1853 he was at the head of the dry goods firm of Crofut & Oviatt, which was for years one of the leading concerns in this line in this city. Subsequently, in 1861, he entered the firm of Crofut & Collins, hatters and outfitters, on Chapel street, and continued there for thirty-five years. Later on he confined his attention to the trunk business and to smaller lines of the trade. Since then he had been living with his son, W. S. Crofut, the well known hotel proprietor, formerly of the Bas-sett House in Derby, the Branford Point House and at present the head of the Miller House in Great Barring-

Mr. Crofut will be remembered with respect by many of the older business residents of New Haven. He is survived by his wife, who is a native of Milford, and with whom he celebrated the anniversary of his golden wedding at the Bassett House ten years ago. His children are W. S. Crofut of Great Barrington, and Mrs. Neilie

SALOONLESS NATION BY 1920.

That's the New "Declaration of Independence" by Christian Endeavorers. Atlantic City, N. J., July 12.— Christian Endeavorers, in convention here, adopted this slogan: A saloon-less Nation by 1920, three hundred years from the date of the landing of the Pilgrims." They propose to pray and work for the closing of every barroom in America, and call the announcement a "new declaration of ndependence." Esperanto as a world language was also endorsed by speakers, who de-clared that the language would do more for universal peace than any number of treaties or Hague conferences. The convention indorsed the efforts of the Esperanto Society of the United States to get Congressional recognition. Because of the ease with which students acquire a knowledge of the language it was said that Esperanto would be a great heip to the missionary movement.
